TOP DESSERT

When you are having a hard time deciding on which dessert to finish out your dining experience at La Mondina, enter the sampler. This sampler artfully includes tastes of the Brielle restaurant's Bombolini (warm cinnamon sugar doughnuts with nutella, salted caramel and creme anglaise for dipping); Tiramisu (espresso lady fingers, whipped mascarpone cream and cocoa) and finally their Chocolate Hazelnut cake (flourless and served with fresh whipped cream and vincotto). These main dishes are surrounded by fresh fruits and chocolate drizzles. lamondinabrielle.com

TOP DONUT

Asbury Park's Purple Glaze brings all the fun to your donut experience. Stop in and give this creation a try — The Last Song - Elton John. The donut crafters share that Sir Elton is a classic in his own right, and his donut special is also pretty classic. This classic starts off with a light and fluffy cake donut dipped in vanilla icing and topped with crumbled Chips Ahoy. purpleglazedonuts.com

TOP STARTER

Brielle's Shipwreck Grill hits a home run right at the Starters menu. The Roasted Red Beets & Burrata Cheese starter will get your taste buds excited for your meal. A fresh offering of burrata cheese sits atop heirloom cherry tomatoes, pesto, micro arugula and aged balsamic vinegar. Shipwreckgrill.com

TOP SIPS

Asbury Park's Brando's Citi Grille invites you to "Sip back and relax" with their Brando's Strawberry Lemonade. Stoli vodka is the star in this cocktail that includes a fresh strawberry puree and fresh lemon juice. This is sure to be a summer favorite. It's also going to pair well with Brando's soulful Italian cuisine. brandosnj.com

Asbury's can't-miss hotspots for Summer 2023

CALLING ALL FOODIES TO ASBURY PARK

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

Asbury Park's eclectic personality lends to an eclectic — and delicious — foodie's paradise. Read on for top dining recommendations this summer.

FOR THE BEACH VIEWS

While much of the bar and restaurant scene in Asbury is beachfront or beach adjacent, some spots just can't be beat for the oceanfront dining experience.

Asbury Oyster Bar: At 1300 Ocean Ave. N., this is a shellfish lovers paradise. With a menu stacked with clams, mussels, oysters and more, there are so many ways to slurp and crunch your favorite mollusks and crustaceans while gazing out the massive windows of Convention Hall at the ocean beyond. (There's also a menu of gourmet grilled cheese options for those who prefer to stick to land-food).

Low Dive: Located on the boardwalk at 1000 Ocean Ave. N., this spot features live music, a full bar and a fun menu that serves up everything from a walking taco, to Hawaiian pizza to churros. Their drink menu even includes Jell-O shots, just above wines by the glass. You're sure to find some fun to please your palate at this location, formerly Langosta Lounge.

Stella Marina: This restaurant lives up to its name "star of the sea," at 800 Ocean Ave. N., featuring rustic, fresh-made pastas, Italian classics like escarole and calamari, pizzas and charcuterie. Stop here to enjoy some of New Jersey's favorite cuisine with a glass of wine and a sea breeze in your hair.

The Robinson Ale House: Looking for a fresh, Jersey seafood-style spin on bar bites and a cold beer on tap? This spot, at 1200 Ocean Ave. N., is it. Stay inside to watch the game while you nosh or sit outside to watch the waves while you sample craft cocktails with spirits made right down the street at the Asbury Distillery.

FOR THE FOOD & THE DRINK

Nothing goes with good food like good drink and some spots just do it better. Below are our top picks for where to go when you want a carefully crafted meal and the perfect drink to go with it.

Pascal & Sabine: Exquisite French fare, inventive cocktails, curated wine list, brunch — it's all here. The restaurant aims to provide visitors a break from everyday life, offering tables that create an intimate dining experience with friends. You can depart from the day-to-day with them at 601 Bangs Ave.; just make a reservation online first.

R Bar: For a bite of Cajun food and the joy of ordering a drink called the "Happy Idiot" or "Abnormally Large Child," check out this spot at 1114 Main St. The Louisiana-inspired menu features large and small plates of seafood, and the venue offers live music. After you eat, head upstairs for more music and cocktails on the roof.

Watermark: On the second floor of 800 Ocean Ave., you can find a sprawling lounge that welcomes you to sit and spend some time. Enjoy a view of the ocean from the low-lying cushioned chairs while you sip seasonal cocktails and nosh on thoughtfully made tapas.

FOR THE DOGS

While we all love eating out in the summer months, sometimes after a long day you just want to hang out with your dog. Luckily, some of Asbury's finest are dog-friendly too. Many of the restaurants listed above have sidewalk or outdoor dining where dogs are welcome to join.

There is one, however, that has a time set aside specifically for your canine companion:

Wonder Bar: This well-loved spot hosts a Yappy Hour, Friday through Monday on Wonder Bar's Yappy Deck at 1213 Ocean Ave.. Humans must be 21 and over. Dogs must be good boys/girls. A $10 cover is donated to animal rescue groups.

OTHER HOT SPOTS

While we've called out some of our favorites above, there are so many spots that are just as worthy of making this list. Check out some additional quick recommendations:

Asbury Ale House brings you classic bar food, drinks and games.

Asbury Festhalle & Biergarten offers German food, frequent music & a rooftop patio, plus an array of beer.

Barrio Costero for elevated coastal Mexican food paired with wine and cocktails.

Belmonte's Ristorante is a low-lit BYOB eatery serving traditional Italian fare amid warm bistro-style decor.

Brando's Citi Cucina featuring a modern take on Italian classics and movies.

Cameo Love Market for the romantic charm of a Mediterranean Market & Bistro.

Cardinal Provisions for an epic brunch.

Cascada is more than a club, offering up Mexican and Latin American fare by day.

Cross & Orange for its inspired take on American small plates and mains.

Frank's Deli offers the same, excellent diner menu it has had forever.

Jimmy's Italian Restaurant once served Sir Paul McCartney its classic Italian fare.

Kim Marie's Eat n Drink Away is an American pub that offers comfort food in warm, cozy quarters with sidewalk seating. Dog friendly.

Loteria for classic, tasty Mexican food in a casual setting.

MOGO Korean Fusion Tacos for its fun take on this handheld staple.

Moonstruck for when you're feeling Mediterranean food with a side of live piano music.

Mutiny BBQ for unforgettable craft barbecue flavors.

Plaza Tapatia is the place to go for authentic Mexican food and half-off sangria.

Porta for its pizza, fire pits and bocce.

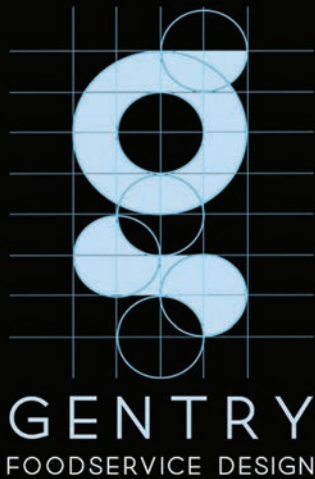

Taka for its beautiful and delicious sushi menu.

Talula's for one very important reason: pizza with homemade sourdough crust

Toast for a hearty brunch or classic American lunch.

Pulp is Asbury Park's raw juice and smoothie bar, but don't overlook their toasts, bagels and more!

River Street Sweets for a fun and sweet time at their giant candy wall.

The heat is on the Summer Stage

THE ICONIC STONE PONY HOSTS FAVORITES ALL SUMMER LONG

BY KATIE JACOBS
NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

Those who love Summer Stage season are already into the thick of it. With a mid-May kick off, the stage has already seen the likes of the iconic Indigo Girls, celebrated pride with homegrown artist Fletcher & Friends, participated in the North 2 Shore Festival with Demi Lovato and the B-52's — all while creating countless core concert memories for visitors to the Ocean Avenue location.

NORTH 2 SHORE FESTIVAL

Caroline O'Toole, general manager of The Stony Pony, said, "We were really honored to be part of the inaugural North 2 Shore Festival." The Asbury Park location of the festival played host to The B-52's and Demi Lovato the weekend of June 16.

"Having Demi Lovato and The B52's in the same weekend was simply outstanding," O'Toole said.

WHAT TO EXPECT IN 2023

O'Toole says visitors to the Summer Stage for the rest of the jam-packed season, can expect to find more points of service making their concert-going experience all that more enjoyable. She said they've added water vending machines to cut down on waiting in line and they've also doubled the amount of their ever-popular item — jello shots!

ON THE CALENDAR

Shows on the calendar this season include a handful of sell outs, particularly at the end of June and into early July. Stick Figure, Goose, Yellowcard, Trey Anastasio Band, Yacht Rock Revue, The Head and The Heart + The Revivalists are all marked sold out in the upcoming weeks. Later in the season, Louis Tomlinson, The Backseat Lovers, Pixies & Modest Mouse are also sold out.

"Over the last few years, the increased demand for the Jersey shore, along with all the different types of music the Summer Stage offers has translated into more sellouts," O'Toole said. "I would suggest not waiting too much longer for your Bouncing Souls tickets."

The Bouncing Souls take the stage on July 22.

POPULAR SHOWS

Popular shows that are summer standards also include Dark Star Orchestra, back again for another round of the Summer Stage, and Southside Johnny & The Asbury Jukes. Although he's moved to a September date, he's no stranger to the Summer Stage. Yacht Rock Revue returns in September for an encore and right now the season is scheduled to end with Dance Gavin Dance on Sept. 30.

You can visit stoneponyonline.com for the full schedule and grab your tickets while they last. O'Toole is appreciative of local support of the Summer Stage.

"You all help keep a legendary venue like The Stone Pony stay on the map," she said.
